

How To See The Trans-Identified & lgbTQia Members Come To Faith And Be Made Free

As a former transgender (detransitioner), an EX-gay man, and EX-rainbow cult member/advocate of 30+ years; as one who ministers to those trapped in the delusions of the TransQueer ideology, please allow me to provide some practical insights to help you engage with those trapped in this cult.

- Due to the familiarity & growing number of those involved in the lgbTQia TransQueer Rainbow Cult, it is becoming almost commonplace to meet these very confused & delusional people in our family, the grocery store, neighborhood, workplace, or anywhere for that matter. Because of this reality, we must establish relationships with those who do not look like, dress like, or act like us; or think/believe what we believe.
- Understand that being a part of this cult is what determines one's friends, location of residence, family dynamics, political views, thoughts, and feelings. Therefore, while discussing life and the gospel be careful not to attack their identity or you will be attacking their entire world. The entirety of their identity all that they know, IS THIS CULT! Do not become their enemy by attacking them with your beliefs.
- Do not dodge the truth. When building intimate relationships, be truthful but also respectful of them as a person, not as an identity or project. If you find yourself discussing the TransQueer agenda in the first conversation or not until later, stand firm in Truth as you lovingly & compassionately communicate with them. Don't let your own bias interfere with your representation in Word, Deed or Action.
- Be the example. As I am an example in word, deed, and action, I have watched the Lord touch many deceived and delusional people, giving them a desire for something more. I've seen many homosexuals and trans-identified people come out of the delusions, the bondage, that held them captive. I've also seen allies & supporters of this cult have their scales removed only to see this dark & deadly movement for what it is.
- The natural man does not receive things of the Spirit; it is foolishness to him (1 Cor. 2:14). Stop trying to force-feed the natural man things that are only spiritually discerned and might take some time to comprehend. Instead, be available to take a walk, help with a task, give a ride, fix something, provide a shoulder to lean on, a listening ear, or go to lunch. Just be available. Intimacy truly is an investment.
- Remember to communicate GOD'S Love, while also explaining that HIS Love alone will not get anyone into The Kingdom. Only HIS mercy and grace do that! We do not have to obtain GOD'S Love—HE already loves us—but we must obtain HIS Mercy which only happens when we humble ourselves before HIM in faith and in repentance. Believing that HE can, and will, grant each of us freedom.
- Do not beat someone up over one or two things they're doing. Homosexuality was not the only thing I was guilty of; I was promiscuous, on drugs, perverted, delusional and a whole lot more. We come to faith understanding that by nature we are sinful, which distorts every facet of our being. Therefore, salvation requires turning from all sin and turning to JESUS The CHRIST! Establish. Be. Wait.
